Your Wedding at The Oaksmere

The Oaksmere is a beautifully restored Grade II Listed Manor House built by the Cornwallis Family dating back to the 16th Century and can be reached by car or train from London in as little as 90 minutes.

Set in 17 acres of rural parkland, our iconic Lime Tree Avenue leads you through our idyllic Suffolk Estate to the Main House.

Steeped with history and romance, The Oaksmere is the perfect backdrop for your wedding celebration, whether your dream is an intimate family gathering in our selection of private dining rooms or a larger celebration in our stylish event marquee.

Our dedicated Wedding Planner will ensure you feel supported, informed and relaxed, every step of the way. From the initial planning, helping design every bespoke element of your dream wedding to coordinating the big day.

We will bring your ideas and dreams to life so your wedding is everything you have every wished for.

We are looking forward to welcoming you to The Oaksmere.

Your Wedding Story Begins...

The Day Before:

At The Oaksmere, we believe in you having as much flexibility as possible, making each and every wedding a truly unique and bespoke experience.

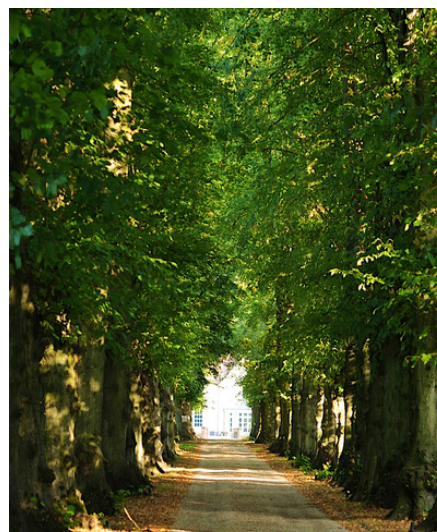

From the moment you arrive everything will be taken care of, including our complimentary guest welcome package which includes a glass of fizz, teas, coffees and cakes for all of your staying guests.

An evening of private dining in a choice of our beautifully appointed reception rooms or perhaps an afternoon tea on your own private terrace followed by cocktails in our orangery cocktail bar.

With options to exclusively hire these areas of the hotel you will feel completely at home and relaxed in preparation for your big day.

At the end of the night, your closest of friends and family will filter to bed in one of their very own luxurious suites or bedrooms.

Filled with love, the perfect way to relax and feeling ready for the big day ahead.

Your Big Day Awaits

Your Wedding Day:

From the moment you open your eyes, the anticipation and excitement is rising.

With everything taken care of by our experienced wedding team, the big day is finally here and your dream wedding is waiting for you.

A cork is popped in the bridal suite where hair and makeup and all of the ablutions are well under way.

As family gather for breakfast they can choose from fruit and croissants for the smaller appetites or go the Full Monty with a Full Suffolk Breakfast.

Our dedicated restaurant team will take care of it all. Giving your wedding party time to enjoy their morning and explore the grounds.

As the time draws nearer, your guests begin to arrive. Dressed in their finest attire and buzzing with excitement for the day ahead your guests can collect their welcome drink and meet and greet their loved ones and friends within our picturesque grounds.

Your Ceremony

The Oaksmere is a fully licensed venue with a variety of beautiful locations in which you can host your ceremony.

For larger celebrations gather family and friends on our picturesque Croquet Lawn. Surrounded by historic topiary, it is the perfect secluded spot to make your vows.

For more intimate celebrations the Main House boasts several private rooms including The Chef's Pantry and The Aviary. Both these spaces are steeped in history and legally licenced to conduct civil ceremonies.

St. Mary's Church is also located within a 5 minute walk from The Oaksmere.

Dining At The Oaksmere

Here at The Oaksmere great local produce is at the heart of all of our menus. We pride ourselves on creating an unforgettable dining experience for you and your guests. We strive to grow and source the best ingredients that East Anglia has to offer.

We believe in good food, done well; produce from our very own Victorian Walled Garden and onsite Butchery set the foundations of our restaurant and wedding menus.
